

DIEBOLD 5700 SERIES HIGH-PERFORMANCE CASH DISPENSERS

THE CASH DISPENSER, REDEFINED

In the era of social media and on-demand television, consumers have come to expect a personalized, compelling experience when they interact with technology. Financial institutions have recognized this trend and are seeking ways to deepen their own customer relationships through the self-service channel.

The Diebold 5700 series was developed to allow this focus on the consumer experience to extend to the cash-dispenser level. With features like an inviting 19" touch screen, a 7" secondary display and high-capacity, intelligent cash-dispensing technology, this robust terminal enables complex transactions in a highly intuitive manner.

LEADING TERMINAL INNOVATIONS

Diebold continues to lead the way by offering all-new features that benefit financial institutions and consumers.

- New ActivCash™ dispensing module increases cash cassette capacity and improves reliability and usability versus standard dispensers
- Intelligent, vertically installed ActivCash cassettes are chip-enabled for storing critical information such as denomination, cash capacity, access history or even health status
- Diebold's patent-pending fascia control hub allows for individual module power control, reducing service time

TRANSFORMED USER EXPERIENCE

With a modern user interface, ergonomic design and quieter operation, the Diebold 5700 series offers a uniquely personalized experience.

- Large 19" touch-screen option coupled with a 7" secondary screen for optimized user experience
- Optional live, two-way video services connecting consumers to remote tellers

SUPERIOR INVESTMENT PROTECTION

The Diebold 5700 series is designed with features that enable the terminal to grow as your operations grow.

- Simplified architecture, standardized parts and modular design for convenient upgrades
- Industry-leading security features help minimize fraud losses and protect consumer privacy and data
- State-of-the-art modules provide industry-leading reliability and serviceability, maximizing uptime

We've Got a Solve for That.™
