DIEBOLD REACHES FINANCING MILESTONE IN CONNECTION WITH PLANNED ACQUISITION OF WINCOR NIXDORF

Company announces Term Loan B financing details

NORTH CANTON, Ohio – Diebold, Incorporated (NYSE: DBD) today announced that the allocation and pricing of the previously disclosed Term Loan B facility, provided under the credit agreement intended to provide part of the financing for Diebold’s previously announced potential acquisition of Wincor Nixdorf Aktiengesellschaft (“Wincor Nixdorf”), was completed. Diebold expects that the Term Loan B facility will consist of a $1 billion U.S. dollar-denominated tranche that will bear interest at LIBOR plus an applicable margin of 4.50% (or, at Diebold’s option, prime plus an applicable margin of 3.50%), and a €350 million euro-denominated tranche that will bear interest at EURIBOR plus an applicable margin of 4.25%, and to enter into an amendment to the credit agreement in respect of the foregoing within 31 days of the pricing of the Term Loan B facility. Each tranche is expected to be funded at 99% of par.

“Today, we have reached a major milestone with respect to our planned transaction with Wincor Nixdorf,” said Christopher A. Chapman, Diebold senior vice president and chief financial officer. “We achieved a borrowing rate in line with our expectations -- which currently equates to a mid-5% weighted average -- by upsizing the Term Loan B facility by approximately $100 million and reducing our planned high-yield offering by a similar amount. I am pleased to reach this milestone and excited as we target closing our transaction in the summer of 2016.”

Diebold intends to use the borrowings from the Term Loan B facility, along with a portion of the cash proceeds from the completed sale of its North America electronic security business and other previously disclosed financing elements, to pay the cash portion of the consideration for tendered Wincor Nixdorf shares, to purchase additional Wincor Nixdorf ordinary shares, to refinance a portion of its and Wincor Nixdorf’s debt, to pay related fees and expenses, and for general corporate purposes.
