Diebold Nixdorf wants you to know the facts, so you can prepare now.

The ATM Ecosystem is Evolving:

#1

Mobile technology leads the rankings as the trend that will have the biggest impact on the ATM industry in the next five years.¹

72%

of FI executives believe that ATMs will increase in importance by 2020, as critical enablers of omnichannel consumer experiences.²

6%

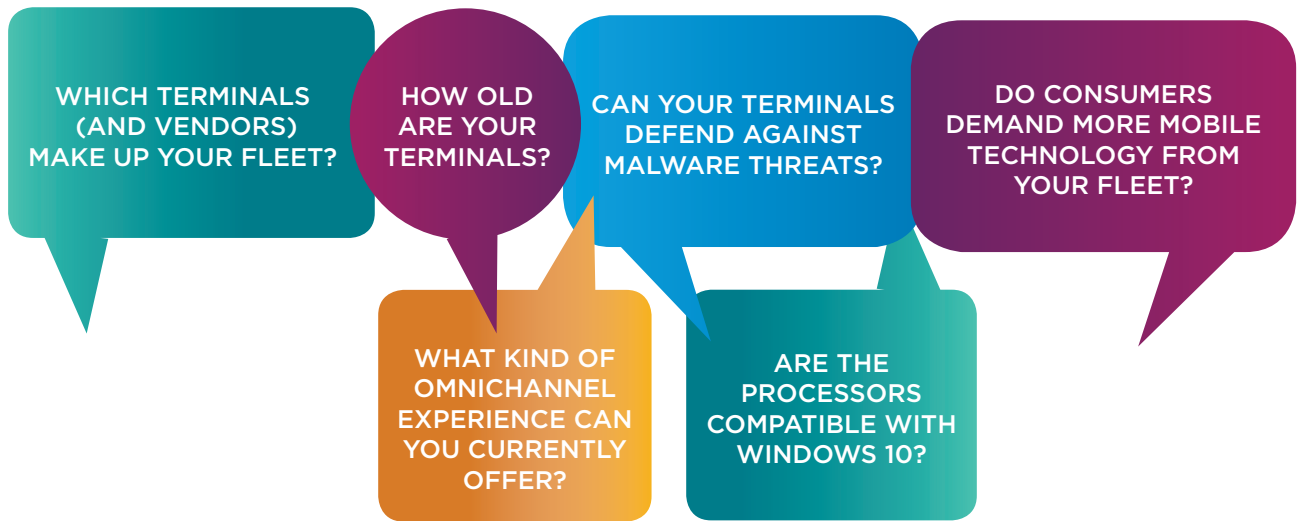

of banks, in a recent survey on personalization capabilities, fell into the "best in class" category; 32% were identified as "lagging."³

1 IN 2

experts polled said malware attacks are one of the top three threats facing the ATM industry.

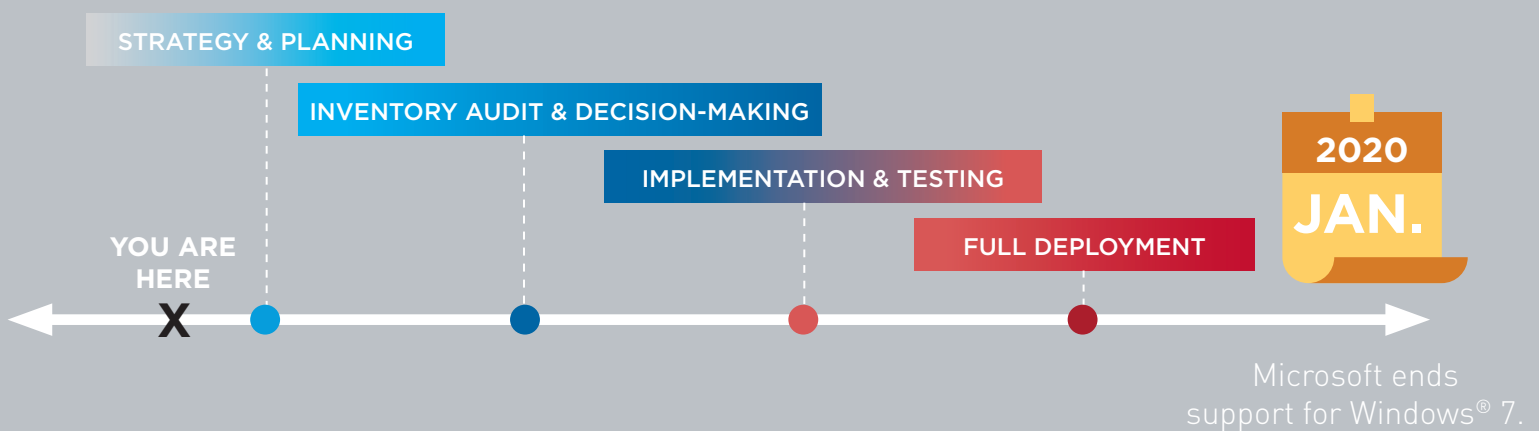

Advance with technology and consumer demands, so you're not "lagging" but leading.

Answer the Following Questions:

If your fleet needs to defend against malware attacks, keep up with mobile technology and deliver omnichannel experiences, Windows 10 is the answer.
