Diebold Nixdorf Wins 2021 STAR Award from The Technology & Services Industry Association (TSIA) for its Digitally Enabled Connected Services

The award follows Diebold Nixdorf's recent milestone of surpassing 100,000 banking self-service devices across the world connected to the DN AllConnect<sup>SM</sup> Data Engine

NORTH CANTON, Ohio – Diebold Nixdorf (NYSE: DBD), a global leader in driving connected commerce across the financial and retail industries, was recently recognized by The Technology & Services Industry Association (TSIA) as a winner of the “Best Practices in the Delivery of Field Services” category as part of TSIA's 2021 STAR Awards. The STAR awards, one of the highest honors in the technology and services industry over the last 31 years, acknowledge a commitment to innovation, leadership and excellence among technology and services organizations across the globe.

Diebold Nixdorf won the STAR award for its DN AllConnect<sup>SM</sup> Data Engine that powers its maintenance and availability services to deliver a truly predictive and data-driven service model. The award comes shortly after the company reached a milestone having over 100,000 banking self-service devices connected to DN AllConnect Data Engine, which leverages real-time, Internet of Things (IoT) connections from Diebold Nixdorf-deployed devices, and has consistently reduced customer downtime by as much as 50%, driving multiple business benefits, such as higher end-user satisfaction, lower total cost of ownership and increased operational efficiencies.

Octavio Marquez, senior vice president, Global Banking, at Diebold Nixdorf said:
